

Secondary Reading Council of Florida Teacher of the Year Award

The Secondary Reading Council of Florida (SRCF), a special interest council of FRA and an affiliate of IRA, has established this award to honor an exemplary reading teacher at the secondary level.

Nominations are solicited from the districts via a letter, and/or through the SRC website. Deadline is April 1st, 2012.

Information and deadlines can be obtained from the SRCF website at www.srcfl.org

The following criteria must be addressed in the documentation:

1. A one page overview of your accomplishments related to being a secondary literacy educator.
2. The nominee must currently be teaching reading in a secondary level (6-12) middle or senior high school classroom.
3. The nominee must hold membership in both SRCFL and FRA (documentation is required).
4. The nominee must provide three (3) letters of recommendation:
 - a. One letter from a student
 - b. One letter from a supervisor (principal and/or district level personnel)
 - c. One letter from a colleague or parent
5. Submit three to five examples of student's work to demonstrate a special focus on reading.
6. Must be submitted on a DVD or scanned via email attachment.

The award recipient will receive $250 to use for future reading materials (personal or professional), a certificate and free registration to next year's Secondary Reading Conference.

The award will be presented at the Annual Secondary Reading Council of Florida Conference. A letter will be sent to the recipient's superintendent and a publicity release will be sent to local media by the Awards Committee.

Submit 2 copies of the completed form and additional information by April 1, 2012 to:
